AIMS AND SCOPE

Interface is a new international journal publishing papers from the interface between the physical sciences, including mathematics, and the life sciences. It provides a high-quality forum to publish rapidly and interact across this boundary in two main ways: interface publishes research applying chemistry, engineering, materials science, mathematics and physics to the biological and medical sciences; it also highlights discoveries in the life sciences that allow advances in the physical sciences. Both sides of the interface are considered equally.

PUBLICATIONS

Michael Klein
Laboratory for Research on the Structure of Matter, University of Pennsylvania

Tadashi Kokubo
Research Institute for Science and Technology, Chubu University

Chwee Teck Lim
Division of Biomechanics & Department of Mechanical Engineering, National University of Singapore

Teresa Ghone
Institute of Advanced Biomedical Engineering and Science, Tokyo Women’s Medical University

Stephen Loveridge
Department of Biochemical Engineering, University of Cambridge

Julia Palak
TRIM Center, Division of Investigative Science, Imperial College London

Patrick Prendergast
Department of Mechanical & Manufacturing Engineering, Trinity College Dublin

Sir George Baddiley
University Laboratory of Physiology, University of Oxford

David Rand
Department of Mathematics, University of Warwick

Neil Rubinstein
Whipple Research Unit, University of Cambridge

John Ryan
Biomedical Engineering IRC, University of Oxford

Jens-Uwe Rückert
Department of Biological Sciences, University of Southern California

Richard Temple
Department of Chemistry, Imperial College London

Martin Vrignon
Computational Molecular Biology, Max-Planck-Institut für molekulare Genetik, Berlin

Ines Yárnoz
Department of Mechanical Engineering, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Joseph Zaccai
Institut Curie, Grenoble

Xingdong Zhang
Engineering Research Center in Biomaterials, Shenzhen University

Subscriptions

In 2009 Journal of the Royal Society Interface (ISSN 1742-5689) will be published monthly, with twelve issues a year. Full details of subscriptions may be obtained either by contacting our journal fulfilment agent, Portland Customer Services, Commerce Way, Colchester CO2 8HP; tel: +44 (0)206 793531; fax: +44 (0)206 799351; email: sales@portland-services.com or by visiting our website at royalsocietypublishing.org/subscriptions.
